

Female Leadership

What defines female leadership? - The leadership seminar for women

Seminar objective

A balanced ratio of women and men in management positions has a very positive impact on corporate success. However, women still face special challenges when they take on or hold a leadership position. The aim of the seminar is to strengthen your leadership skills and thus to work out your very special leadership style. In this seminar you will learn a lot about yourself and how you can successfully develop your personality, especially with regard to your leadership tasks. Using practical examples and transfer tasks, you will work on your goals and find ways to achieve them.

Seminar content

Taking the lead:

- Leading authentically - why do women lead differently?
- Problem "glass panes" - what are the typical issues in advancement?
- Successfully changing roles and developing your own leadership style
- Reflecting on your own understanding of leadership

Finding your own leadership style:

- Have the courage!
- Work on making decisions confidently even under uncertainty.
- Creativity is in demand: develop your leadership role
- Learn to master everyday leadership efficiently and convincingly under professional guidance
- Taking responsibility

Techniques:

- Use, maintain and design networks!
- Lead systemically and make holistic decisions
- Delegation and goal setting

Leadership Communication:

- Make a convincing impact through professional leadership skills
- Successfully conducting conversations and recognizing body language signals
- Appreciative communication

Methodology

The seminar will first provide you with basic theoretical knowledge, which you will reflect on with the help of concrete instructions for action and exercises. Using transfer tasks and practical examples, you will work on your management skills and their implementation in everyday life.
